PROFESSIONAL ENDORSEMENTS

"Stephen is one of few managers I've worked with who possesses both emotional intelligence and intelligence of the game, taking the time to understand his players as people, always wanting to learn and improve himself and his team, whilst preparing us for games. He works to impeccable standards in training and ensures the team always comes first. He gets the best out of all of his players; he cares for his players. We are still in close contact and he has been integral with my coaching journey." - Julian Gray: Former professional football player

"Steve is a fantastic professional. He is extremely hard working, knowledgeable and open minded to new ideas and ways of working. He has an excellent ability to pay attention to the right details, and is able to articulate his thinking in an impactful and visionary way. Having enjoyed being coached by Steve, I can state with confidence his work is of the highest level, he commands the respect of both his peers and players, all whilst being a first class human being. I believe Steve would thrive in a range of different roles within any professional football club." - David Livermore: Assistant Manager, Gillingham FC

"Stephen's knowledge and experience are recognised worldwide. As an International Coach he has immersed himself in an incredible variety of cultures and changed the lives of so many players around the world. As a club coach he has taken on some really difficult roles but has left every one of them better off for his contribution than when he started. His tribulations as an assistant coach have shaped his own man management skills and by learning to manage upwards successfully, he has become highly effective as a leader and mentor. These attributes have also seen Stephen contribute to the worldwide game through his roles as an Educator with various Confederations and FIFA. Many coaches have benefitted through the vast experience he can tap into. There can be no doubt about his technical qualities as a coach, educator and leader." - Les Reed: 1st Vice Chair, UEFA Development & Assistance Committee and Vice-Chairman, Southampton FC

"FIFA's mission is to develop football worldwide and to assist member associations according to their specific needs and challenges. In order to achieve this goal, FIFA needs a tailor-made approach that can only be implemented thanks to technical experts like Stephen. His commitment and dedication to our sport is exemplary. He is one of those precious experts who brings our philosophy to the pitch and convert it into reality. Stephen is a highly skilled, knowledgeable, experienced and professional football enthusiast who contributes to the development of our sport across the globe." - Gianni Infantino: President, FIFA
